Welcome Back to the Pentagon Reservation Transportation Plan

Last Updated: 7/9/2021

Ensuring the safety of all our personnel, customers and operators is priority number one. This plan provides information to help you plan your commute and travel needs and alleviate concerns and unknowns as we begin to return to the Pentagon Reservation. Procedures are provided by Health Protection Condition (HPCON) levels. Please note that this information is subject to change. While we will make updates as information becomes available, please check the websites of your transportation providers for the most current updates.

Phase 0 - HPCON C+ Transportation Procedures

Regional public transportation services and DoD shuttle services are severely reduced to ensure the safety and health of the front line workers, transportation operators and essential workers.

Social Distancing. The transportation systems limit the number of passengers boarding buses/trains, reducing capacity to at least 50% or more. Most public transit buses implemented rear-door boarding and waiving fare to maintain social distancing and reducing contact.

Face Coverings. Required on Metrorail, Metrobus and in stations. Also required on all regional transit systems and facilities beginning May 28, 2020. DoD shuttle passengers are required to wear face coverings in the shuttles and at mass transit hubs.

Cleaning of Transit Vehicles. Cleaning frequencies have increased during the day to disinfect buses and trains. Electrostatic sprayers are also used to increase the speed of cleaning.

Metrorail

Operation (Reduced): 5am to 9pm (Weekdays); 8am to 9pm (Weekends) 19 Metro-rail Stations Closed; Pentagon station remains open.

Frequency: Every 15 minutes on Red line & every 20 minutes on all other lines

Full details: www.wmata.com/service/status/details/covid-operating-status.cfm

Special Project: Summer Platform Shutdown began on May 23 with 4 Orange Line stations closed and no service on Silver Lines (www.wmata.com/platforms)

Metrobus

Operation (Reduced): 5am to 11pm (Daily)

Frequency: Varies; running reduced weekend services and modified Sunday services during weekday. 7M (Pentagon-Mark Center) runs every 30 minutes

Schedules: www.wmata.com/service/status/details/covid-operating-status.cfm

Other Public Transit Services
